

Loop 59 - From Embrun to Les Orres

Hautes-Alpes

(Emmanuel DANJOU)

Les Orres! Well-known for its mountain biking, the Gravel can certainly hold its own with this 50km loop for sports enthusiasts.

A demanding Gravel loop for experienced riders only. One ascent, one descent and 20 undulating kilometres in between. The route mainly takes in woodland, with a bit of a ski resort and mountain atmosphere in the valley of the torrent des Vachères. A return trip to the Grand Vallon hut is available as an option.

1. Facing the lake, (start of the mountain bike circuits), join the dam and turn left. Follow the course of the Durance. At the footbridge, cross the stream and turn right. Head along the left bank of the Durance, passing under the bridge. At the no-cycling sign, turn left to cross the business park. After the footbridge, continue along the dam towards Crots. At the end of the dam, turn 190 degrees to the left.
2. Just before the N94, take the cycle lane on the left and cross the road through the tunnel. At the end of the tunnel, turn right. At the D90, turn left (/!\ for cars). At the crossroads, turn right and pass in front of Crots town hall. At the Château de Picomtal roundabout, turn left.
3. Before the bridge (torrent de Bellegrave), descend to the left then turn right to go along the stream to the bridge. At the bridge, ascend to the right.
5. At DFCI track H18, take a left hairpin turn and continue straight ahead.
6. As the GRP (red and yellow markings) veers to the left, you ascend to the right. Cross the bridge, then continue along the main path to the left. At the Domaine du Loup Blanc, continue on the hairpin road. At Prélallègre, take the main road on the right towards the resort centre of Les Orres 1650.
7. At the Chalet de la Navette in Bois Mean, continue straight ahead on Allée des Chamois, then go left down the Allée des Fouonts. After the gate, take the left-hand path onto the ski slopes. Continue straight on up the path, passing through larch undergrowth. /!\ roots. In the larch undergrowth, choose the downhill option on the left.
8. At les Abouchiers, descend the track on the left towards "le Melezet". At Les Seyes, continue downhill to the right to reach the hamlet and the road. On the road, turn right.
9. In the bend before the bridge, go right up the track towards "Grand Vallon". At the fountain, continue straight on towards the Saint-Pierre chapel and the Grand Vallon. Then descend to the left, cross the bridge and cross to the right bank of the torrent (return trip possible to the Grand Vallon, add 10 km). At the Château, continue left along the road to Les Orres county town. On leaving "Bas Forest", continue straight ahead on the flat road.

10. At Rue du Fort turn right towards the church. After the communal fountain, turn right twice onto the Méale road and then the stony track.
